Hall of Records, Portals, the Inner Earth and Our ET Heritage - A Second Look (part 1)

Today, awakening starseeds are critical to the fulfillment of this long-term project. However, many still do not consciously realize the energy, light codes, and abilities they carry within to assist humanity as global events reach a crescendo. Comprehending our ET heritage begins with individuals recognizing and accepting the reality of their own star lineages to bridge humankind back to our ET family. Simultaneously, starseeds will activate ancient technologies, step up as healers, pilots, architects, and visionaries, all to help skillfully guide us to rejoin our galactic community. Dr. Salla presents an impressive array of historical sources, ancient records, & witness testimony detailing ancient Halls of Records, Portal's Technologies, Inner Earth, Starseed Potentials, & revelations about humanity's extraterrestrial heritage. Originally recorded on May 14, 2022, Presented here in 2 parts, and worthy of a Second Look.

ANNOUNCER: Dr. Salla presents an impressive array of historical sources, ancient records, and witness testimony detailing ancient halls of records, portal technologies, Inner Earth, star seed potentials, and revelations about humanity's extraterrestrial heritage. Originally recorded on May 14, 2022, presented here in two parts and worthy of a second look.

DR. SALLA: Welcome everyone, Aloha, howdy all. Special welcome to everyone tuning in from around the world. I'm very grateful to have so many of you choosing to spend your time with me as we go through this journey of understanding what is going on as far as these ancient halls of records, stories about portals, Inner Earth beings, and of course the extraterrestrial factor, how that all relates. And if anyone needed any persuasion that we live in, very unique times, I mean of course we look around us and what we read in the newspapers, what we hear on television broadcasts and on the internet, it's very disturbing stuff of course, I mean the Ukraine, the pandemics, food shortages, baby food shortages, prospects of economic, I mean very depressing news,

So it's stuff that really makes you aware that this is a series of events that is affecting every person on the planet at the same time. Now what we just had just a few days ago here in the United States in the US Congress was that for the first time in over 54 years the US Congress had a hearing on UFOs, I mean now they call them UAPs, unidentified aerial phenomena, but it's the same UFO that researchers such as myself had been talking about for decades, flying sources, extraterrestrial spacecraft, now that's called an unidentified aerial phenomenon. And in that hearing it was said that well these UAPs are real, we have good records showing that they are appearing near military aircraft, near military facilities and they can't be explained, that we have evidence in terms of pilot sightings, in terms of radar tracking, in terms of visuals, but we don't know what they are, they could be Russian, they could be Chinese, or they could be extraterrestrial, we don't know, but what we do know is that they are a national security threat,

Now those of us that have been working in this field for decades, no that's nonsense, they know very well what they are, but as far as the public is concerned, as far as the brainwashed mainstream is concerned, those that read the New York Times or the Washington Post or tune in to CNN or watch NBC, ABC, the major media networks, for them this is big news, like wow the UFOs are real, they are a possible national security threat, they could be extraterrestrial, So this is big news for many and what it does is it lays the foundation, it lays the groundwork for this big reveal that I talked about in my last webinar and that big reveal it can manifest in many different ways. Ideally of course we would love for the big space arks to start appearing, start floating, the mother ships from the extraterrestrial sea to races subtly appearing and them sharing their knowledge, them welcoming people to their ships and of course humanity launches onto this incredible new future, this static future, I mean I would be the positive way it could unveil itself, but there's also a negative way and I've talked about that in an earlier webinar and that is the false flag alien invasion, that is a very real possibility too. And what makes it all even more confusing is that it could be both happening at the same time, we don't know, but if you look at that congressional hearing, the vacuous nature of what was revealed, what it shows is that this was kind of like a compromise, that hearing was a compromise between the deep state and the White Hats, like laying the foundation for what's to come, is it going to be a big reveal with all the positive ETs suddenly showing themselves and White Hats kind of like coming out and us launching into this Star Trek future or a more negative path, we don't know. But you know rather than sitting by passively and waiting for the deep state or for the White Hats to play their final cards or to kind of like do their final maneuvers and kind of rescue us or take over, rather than wait for that, we can play a powerful role because we are powerful. I mean, it's very easy to kind of like get into this state where we think, oh, well, we're insignificant, the deep state has been in control for thousands of years, the White Hats, they have all these powerful resources and we're really waiting for one or the other to decide who's going to win, what plan they're going to move forward with. We can be passive and wait for all that, but I think everyone tuning in here, you are at the cutting edge. I mean, if you're here watching this webinar, you are at the cutting edge because you're informed or you're seeking to be informed and you are willing to be open to new information, doesn't mean you have to agree with everything I say, but the fact that you're here means that you're willing to hear it and that's fantastic,

So I really want you for that because I think those that hear this information are going to come away from it empowered because we have very powerful friends and they're working with us. Every one of us, every person that's registered for this webinar, all of the star seeds on the planet and there are figures of around 200 million starseeds on the planet, each one of those star seeds is connected with a network of extraterrestrials or Inner Earth civilizations and they can all play a powerful role in helping bring about the kind of future that we would all love to see. This very positive harmonious, elegant, graceful unveiling of our fullest potential and of this star trek future suddenly emerging in front of us,

So that takes me to the subject of today, which is halls of records, portals, the Inner Earth and our ET heritage,

So the big question to begin with is where are the records of humanity's history? So where are they? I mean, we know we've had a rich history of civilizations before this contemporary western civilization that we're all familiar with today, that there have been archaeological investigations, lots of books, lots of research conducted on these ancient civilizations,

So where are the records of these and how far back do those records go? Well, officially the records begin with ancient Sumer. These are the official records, the oldest available public records, they're any archaeologists go to any university, they will typically say that summa is the oldest civilization that we know of, that it sprung into existence virtually overnight, about 3,800 BC,

So we're talking almost 6,000 years ago, Sumer just sprang into existence and it began to display a remarkable level of civilization from the very beginning. Now, there have been a number of archaeologists, a number of people investigating Sumerian records, cuneiform texts that refer to something called the Sumerian Kings list,

So that says that prior before the first human rulers that we know of, that began around 3,800 BC, these were the human rulers of the Sumerian kingdom. Before that, there was a rule by the gods and that lasted for 241,200 years. And that was well before the Great Flood and the Great Flood is spoken about in the Sumerian records. And that after this extended period of 2,400 years from the beginning of time, the rule by the gods was then replaced by the rule by the demigods who were hybrids of the gods and of humans,

So the demigods we would regard as like giants. You know, there's some people asking who are the giants, who are the blue giants, who are the red-haired giants. Well, this is the group we're talking about, these kind of demigods, these genetically engineered hybrids created by extraterrestrials, human using primates on Earth to create these hybrids who were rulers of humanity. And then around 3,800 BC, then you have the beginning of the human dynasties where you actually have the emperors, the ancient Sumerian emperors and so forth. Now, the Sumerian couldn't form texts, the records, they reveal what they depict, gods or extraterrestrials ruling over humanity. This is well known, you're probably, I'm sure, this many times. And the same thing happened in Egypt, virtually the same thing, even though Egypt is a very different civilization to Sumer. With Egypt, according to the official archaeological records, if you go to a university, they'll tell you that well, around 3,100 BC, the 30 dynasties began. The first of the 30 dynasties began in ancient Egypt, where you had these human pharaohs ruling over the Egyptians, building the pyramids over the succeeding centuries of millennia. But when you look at some of the records from historians, such as

Manetho, we have something very similar to what happened in Sumer, that prior to the human civilizations, you have this period of direct rule by the gods and the demigods,

So this is what Manetho who composed his account in three books. These deal with the gods the demigods the spirits of the dead and the mortal kings who ruled Egypt down to Darius, king of the Persians after the gods demigods reigned for 1,255 years and again another line of kings held sway for 1,187 years then came 30 more kings of Memphis reigning for 1,790 years and then again 10 kings of this reigning for 350 years so once again you have this idea that prior to human rulers that are associated with the 30 dynasties that began from 3,100 BC there were these gods and demigods directly ruling over humanity.”

So once again, you have this idea that prior to human rulers that are associated with the 30 dynasties that began from 3,100 BC, there were these gods and demigods directly ruling over humanity. Now, the question we have to ask ourselves, and we have lots of Egyptian records, glyphs depicting the direct rule from the extraterrestrials, the non-humans, and of course, advanced technologies that were used, So the question we have to ask ourselves is, well, if we know the history of humanity, or Western civilization, well, our ancient civilization, up to 3,800 BC in Sumer, and after 3,100 BC in Egypt, if we know those records, because there are lots of records of that, because this is what mainstream archaeologists focus on, then what happened to the records of the rule by the gods? What happened to the records of the rule by the demigods? Where are they? These rulers, the civilizations that they ruled over for hundreds of thousands of years, where are those records? Western archaeologists will tell you, oh, that's just myth. That was just myth, though, kind of like making things up. Oh that was like the king's list. While people misinterpreting the people, misinterpreting the king's list, that's just myth, on nonsense. That's not myth. That's our ancient history that's been scrubbed from our memories, from the historical records. Those records exist, but they've been kept from us for very good reasons. Now, this is where we get to talk about Atlantis, because that's where we do know quite a bit. Now, the story of Atlantis really arises from the platonic dialogues. That that Plato, in a number of dialogues, including the Critias dialogue, talked about ancient Atlantis, and described it as a great empire with advanced technologies and many colonies all over the world. In the different platonic dialogues, he describes this civilization and how it flourished at the same time as the ancient Greeks had an incredible civilization.

Now, the interesting thing was with Plato was that he dated Atlantis and its destruction to 9,000 years prior to when the ancient Athenian law-maker who saw the records of Atlantis in Egypt. And so that brings the destruction of Atlantis to 9,600 BC.

Now, the Atlanteans, they worked with extraterrestrial civilizations according to a number of sources. One of the more authoritative sources is the work of foolishly, who channeled the nine, or some call it the Council of Nine. And the Council of Nine is a group that put out some really compelling information. And I discussed the Council of Nine in my previous webinar, but just for those of you that maybe needed to be reminded, the information that Schlemmer got from the Council of Nine, initially all of that was done was with using a Faraday cage. And this really meant that the psychic information that was being received could not be interfered with electronically by those that didn't want the information to be disseminated,

So I do recommend The Only Planet of Choice as something that gives us an idea of ancient Atlantis and the extraterrestrial civilizations that they worked with. Now, what we're told from these records, coming from a number of sources, Edgar Cayce is another person. Again, channeled information, but Cayce, like The Only Planet of Choice, this is probably one of the more reliable pieces of information that we can use for getting an idea of what really happened in Atlantis, other than, of course, the platonic dialogues.

And in the Cayce material and The Only Planet of Choice material, what we get is the idea that the ancient Atlanteans were subverted by negative extraterrestrial groups, including Reptilians and Orions, who infiltrated Atlantis and instigated its downfall, that these groups, the Orions and the reptilians, are associated with very powerful off-world species that have galactic empires that subvert worlds like the Earth, bringing it to a point where they can openly intervene to bring about their agenda.

This is the playbook of the negative extraterrestrials that the negatives don't just show up one day and invade. That's not the way they do it, because that would bring about a lot of negative karma. The way they do it is they infiltrate and subvert a world so that that world, the citizens of it, call upon these extraterrestrials and invite them to come. Now, there are some people, including some very respected researchers in the field, that openly invite extraterrestrials to appear, to come and to help us, to rescue us from the evil cabal that is manipulating humanity for a long time, and that anyone talking about negative extraterrestrials is really committing a kind of exo-racism. That's the term that is used by some researchers who talk about negative extraterrestrial groups,

So they will tell you that, while if you're talking about negative extraterrestrial groups, that subvert and infiltrate worlds, then you're practicing exo-racism. Now, my response to that is quite simple. We know from hundreds of insiders and contactees that agreements have been reached with the cabal, with the secret government, with the militaries, with some of these extraterrestrial groups, and that these agreements have been kept secret for over 50 years. Now, if you think these are extraterrestrials, we want to openly welcome them. There's a bridge in Brooklyn that is for sale, according to my latest sources,

No, nonsense. We have to be disheartening. We have to know how to separate friends from foes. And anyone that tells you that we just welcome all extraterrestrials is really setting ourselves up for a fall. And the important thing to keep in mind is the Atlanteans fell for it. The Atlanteans did do this. They did welcome all the extraterrestrials. And that brought about its fall because it meant that they were subverted by the reptilians, by the Orions, by the Grays, the Nabu West, some called them. And that's what led to their downfall, So if you wanted to kind of get up to speed with some of these different extraterrestrial groups out there, the positive groups, to see groups, how they are accounted to these more negative groups that I just mentioned, then my last video, my last webinar, I recommend you go to that. Now, as far as the Atlanteans are concerned and the positive extraterrestrials, now we know that the positives were also involved with the Atlanteans.

And in The Law of One material that was channeled by Carla Rueckert with Don Elkins, and that appeared in 1981 from I think, 1981 to 1984. That's when The Law of One material was channeled. And again, it is has proven to be very reliable information that has checked out with a lot of independent sources, So this is what The Law of One material have to say about Atlantis and this positive group of extraterrestrials, such as the Galactic Confederation.

This is a question from

Don Elkins, "We have a condition where a large number of the entities of Atlantis had started at least going in the direction of the Law of one and living the Law of one for their call to be heard by the confederation. This call was heard because using the Law of one, it overrode the opposition of the Atlantean entities that were not calling. The confederation then used channels, such as we use now for communication and also made contact directly. But this turned out to be a mistake because it was converted by some of the entities of Atlantis. Is that correct?"

Ra, That is correct,

So this is how extraterrestrial contact, even positive extraterrestrial contact can be subverted if you have a negative, governing power in place in a civilization. And that's what happened in Atlantis. That is what happened on Earth, as I said, our leaders, especially in the United States, but in many other countries, made agreements with some of these negative extraterrestrial groups, the Orions, the Reptilians, made agreements, and that as a result of those agreements, we've had 70 years of silence where none of the technology, none of the wisdom, is publicly shared other than just a little trickle that comes out in some of the technologies that have been released in the public arena.

Now, The Law of One material, as I mentioned, is very important for understanding the ethical mindset of not only positive extraterrestrial groups, but also humans, both leaders and the population, that are in alignment with one another. The Law of One really distills down into this idea that is expressed here, and that is quoted, "The law of one may be approximated by stating that all things are one, that there is no polarity, no right or wrong, no disharmony, but only identity. All is one, and that one is love, light love, the infinite creator."

Now, people get this wrong sometimes because they assume that, well, if I think all is one, there's no right, wrong, no disharmony, but only identity, there's only love, light, and light love, that while there's no need to discern between good ETs and bad ETs, because all is one, that there's no right, no wrong. Well that's not really what the law of one is teaching here. It's teaching that we need to identify that everything is part of one elaborate cosmic play, if you like, one unfolding plan, or that, and as we progress in that plan, we grow in light love, love light, and in our awareness of the one infinite creator. And the more we do that, we are better able to discern, because there are those that are still trapped in duality, that are still trapped inside of the idea of what is bad, what is good, and that they project those binary categories onto others.

And so, as far as these negative extraterrestrial groups that are being talking about, the Reptilians and the Orions, these are unethical people or entities, they have a philosophy. In their philosophy, it's a service to self-philosophy. In their philosophy, by imposing imperial order, you bring about the greatest good for the greatest number, it's a utilitarian philosophy. And so, they do have a way of understanding what they're doing. And those of us that want to be discerning, we see that they are part of a plan, but what they are doing is contrary to these values that recognize the inherent value and goodness of all individuals, that you don't allow people to suffer in poverty, that you don't ignore people's free will choices, that you don't subvert them to slavery and so forth. In a utilitarian philosophy, slavery is just part of a system, and slavery is used, but in this love-like philosophy of the law of one, slavery is inherently wrong.

So, discernment is important. And so, what we want to do is understand that the negative extraterrestrials do have a kind of service to self-philosophy, and the more positive extraterrestrials have this service to other philosophy. And that is an important way in differentiating between the two.

As I mentioned, Atlantis sank around 9600 BC, and prior to that, it began a series of destructive wars that led to its sinking under the ocean. And what really makes Plato's information here really very important and historically verifiable is the fact that he's saying at 9600 BC, Atlantis sank because of some cataclysmic set of events.

While we know, according to historical records, looking at ice core samples from Greenland, that in fact, the Younger Dryas period ended around 11600 years ago, which matches what Plato said, because 11600 years ago, there was a sudden warming of the planet, and the ice sheets melted. The great North American ice sheet, the Laurentian ice sheets that covered all of Canada and North America up until the Ohio Basin, all of those were massive ice sheets, two miles thick. They all melted. That led to this great flood. So, historically, Plato's information matches.

So, the Atlanteans underwent this cataclysmic set of events around 9600 BC. Now, some of the Atlanteans knew of the coming destruction. The Atlanteans had their mystics. They had their prophets. They had their time travel technologies. They had their chronovise, they had the advanced technology, to see what was coming. They knew what was coming.

And so, those that were informed of what was coming, they took steps. And an important part of their preparation was to identify places on the planet that would be safe in the coming cataclysm, and to take with them as many records as they could, preserving the civilizational achievements of Atlantis, and protecting those and putting them in safe repositories for a time when civilization could rebuild. That's what the Atlanteans did.

So, this is what we get in the Edgar Cayce readings. He said, "In those periods when the first change had come in the position of the land, there had been an egress of peoples from the Atlantean land."

So, he's telling us that the Earth changes that led to the destruction of Atlantis didn't all just happen overnight. There was a series of events, and as these events transpired, people that were informed, that were aware, knew what was coming, so they began to leave and take with them everything they could.

So, some Atlanteans escaped with their records, and of course, the Atlantean records are very, very old. We can assume that a lot of us Atlantean records probably have the records of earlier civilizations, such as Lemuria, of Mu, of Hyperborea.

All of these civilizations have been talked about by one historian or another. So, the Atlantean Cayce readings said that these, what these people had were records of the movement of stars and constellations. So, that's just a glimpse into what it was that the Atlanteans took with them. They took records of the movements of stars and constellations, along with records of other things.

Now, why would they take records of the movements of stars and constellations? I mean, you would take that if the stars, the constellations were important in terms of how a civilization can operate. Reading between the lines, what we see here is that they're talking about information that they gleaned from different extraterrestrial groups, the technologies that the extraterrestrials had shared, the spacecraft that could be used to fly off planet, where these kinds of records would be essential.

And of course, the knowledge of astrology. Now, astrology is a really interesting one because the more I study the exopolitical phenomenon, the more impressed I am by the relevance of astrology of all things to the kind of events that transpire not only on Earth, but throughout the stars. So, I'll talk a little bit more about that later when it comes to Genesis, the creation of humanity, the role of astrology.

So, now, okay, so we've covered the Atlanteans. Now, I want to talk about another source of information about the ancient records. So, the Atlantean records that were taken by the Atlanteans put into safe repositories and stored for a period when humanity would be ready. I will come back to this to give you some idea of where these were stored. But for now, we'll look to another source. And this is the Book of Enoch, which I think is a very important book that really is undervalued in contemporary Christianity, the Hebrew faith, and also in Islam as well. The Book of Enoch, it was discovered or rediscovered in 1773 as a canonical text of the Ethiopian church dated to the third century BC.

So, they meant that this was a book that was well known around the 250 BC, well known to researchers, people that practice the Hebrew faith at that time, that the scenes, for example, a very reclusive set that were mystical Hebrews, if you like, that they were very familiar with the Book of Enoch and the truths within it.

And all of those that spent time with the scenes, including Jesus of Nazareth, they were very familiar with this book and what it depicted. So, what did it depict? So, the Book of Enoch, it describes a war between the righteous angels and the fallen angels due to the latter's sexual depredations and sharing advanced technologies with humanity. So, this sounds very familiar. Of course, the righteous angels, we can think of those as service to other extraterrestrials. In previous webinars, I've talked about the confederation of planets, the galactic federation, the intergalactic confederation. These are positive extraterrestrial groups and the fallen angels, the Reptilian empire, the Orion empire, the Grays, the Nabu, and the latter abused sexuality.

They shared technology with humanity that wasn't ready for it. And this has happened with us. I mean, you only have to go back to the Second World War when Reptilians shared advanced technologies with the Nazis, with Nazi Germany. I mean, could you think of a more horrible choice to share advanced extraterrestrial technologies with than Nazi Germany under Adolf Hitler? But that's exactly what happened. That the Draconian Reptilians and the Orion Grey partners or the Orion Alliance partners shared advanced technologies with the Nazis because the Nazis wanted it.

So right there, I mean, isn't that reason enough for intervention by the Galactics, by the positive extraterrestrial groups? And this, in fact, is what we know led to the intervention by these positive extraterrestrial groups, such as the Galactic Federation of Worlds, the Andromeda Council and so forth.

The Andromeda Council, as I've mentioned earlier, Alex Collier, who has done incredible work in putting out information about the Andromeda Council. And for those of you, I just want to give up a shout out to the webinars that Alex Collier does. He does two or three a month. Go to his website, AlexCollier.org, I believe it is, and find out about the webinars. But he shared information about a temporal war that was begun because of the intervention by the negative extraterrestrial groups in human history. And this led to positive extraterrestrial groups, such as the Galactic Federation and the Ashtar Command and so forth, intervening in human affairs to counter what the negative extraterrestrials did in terms of Nazi Germany, So what that boils down to is that what happened with Nazi Germany with it being helped by the Reptilians and the Grays, and then he had the Galactic Federation kind of intervening because what the Reptilians did was a violation of the prime directive and the Andromeda Council kind of like a learning, all of these positive extraterrestrial groups about the transgression. All of this is a repeat of what happened with the events described in the Book of Enoch.

So the Book of Enoch is describing essentially the same dynamics that happened before the Great Flood. We're talking about before 11,600 years BC, so 11,600 years ago, there was a great flood that the same dynamics that led to that great flood and the destruction of Atlantis, that has repeated itself.

So Enoch in the Law of one.

So what is that? So Enoch in the Law of One. Enoch was among the pre-flood patriarchs, son of Jared. Now Jared is familiar for those of you that follow the Mormon church. He is the one that had these golden tablets that was handed to him. That later on was handed down to this bloke, Joseph Smith. And Joseph Smith of course was the founder of modern-day Mormonism. But there is historical evidence here that this really did happen. Now Enoch was the father of Methuselah and the great grandfather of Noah. And we know Noah, the great flood. And I described the great flooding in my webinar last month. And Enoch was a follower of this pre-flood ethical code or religion that today we would call the law of one. Now Enoch was an extraterrestrial contactee. I mean when you read through the text, it's quite clear that that's what was going on. He was a contactee. He was chosen by the righteous angels. And of course this is of course in the Book of Enoch or in the Bible or the Quran, they are going to talk about angels, righteous angels, fallen angels and so forth. Because they don't talk about extraterrestrials at all. But angels is a term that is synonymous with an extraterrestrial when we are talking about historical events.

So he was chosen by the galactic confederation, the righteous angels to be a witness to a witness that led to the fall of Atlantis and removal of the fallen angels. AKA the Draco and the Orion Alliance from Global Authority. And Enoch was a witness to all of these events and he was taken off into space, into off-world locations, taken to these bases on different planets or in space stations orbiting some of the gas giants such as Jupiter, such as Saturn that we've had various contactees referred to.

So he's taken to the heavens where he meets with representatives from these different galactic organizations, the Galactic Federation of Worlds, the Andromeda Council, the Ashtar Command and so forth and the Inner Earth, and I'll talk about the Inner Earth a lot more later, but he meets with representatives of these different civilizations and he meets with them and a different and a hierarchy of gods, the leaders of all of these. And he meets with them and he's shown a lot of these advanced technologies and he's given a lot of information and he's told, look at all these, remember all of this stuff because you have to remember it and you have to write about it because you have to put together a history or you have to put together a detailed manifesto, chronicling, everything that you saw, so this will help humanity after the flood. And in the Book of Enoch, it actually says that 360 books were written by Enoch, 360.

So it wasn't just a Book of Enoch, that's just one. Or maybe it might be several because the way they did, back in those days, what we would consider a chapter now would be considered a group. So maybe the Book of Enoch represents maybe 10 chapters, which might be 10 out of the 360, but nevertheless, 360 books were written by Enoch about his interactions with different extraterrestrial groups and technologies which would help Methuselah and Noah restore civilization after the Great Flood. Now there's another Book of Enoch which was discovered in the 14th to the 18th century.

So we're talking somewhere from the 1300s to the 1700s and this was discovered in the lands that we would consider today and part of the former Yugoslavia, Eastern Europe, the Slavonic manuscripts that date back to the first century BC. And what's described in the Book of Enoch, the Book of the Secrets of Enoch, so this is a separate book, Methuselah, the son of Enoch, is chosen to establish a priesthood to safeguard the ancient wisdom.

So it's not like today. Today if you get a lot of information, an extraterrestrial, you have any information dumped, you just put it on the internet now and give it to everyone, right? Now that's the way it works now, you write a book and you release it publicly on Amazon or you've done, put it uploaded to your website. But in those days, what was done was that Methuselah was given responsibility to safeguard the knowledge because the problem with Atlantis was that the advanced technology had been abused and had been misused. I mean, there's lots of stories, the anti-casing material talks about it where there was a lot of cloning, a lot of chimeras where there was creation of half human, half animal beings and the cloning and the aggressive wars, the advanced technology was abused and so that led to the destruction of an incredible civilization. I mean, Atlantis is, I think that trauma from the destruction of Atlantis, which lasted for many thousands of years, I mean, just think about it, our Western civilization is probably at 200, 300 years. Now if we were destroyed there would be a kind of like a memory, a collective unconscious memory of that, that would traumatize. I imagine a civilization that lasted thousands of years. So anyway, so that was the ancient Atlanteans misused their technology, it led to their destruction, it led to this incredible trauma.

So what happened was Enoch was given the purified information or a pure form of the information. This extraterrestrial knowledge, knowledge about higher physics, chakras, spiritual laws, about the way in which you have portal systems operating, the way in which the Earth could be maintained in balance. He was given all of this information, told to safeguard it so that it would not be abused.

So you couldn't just upload it, release it to everyone because that's what happened in Atlantis essentially. It had been abused because everyone had access to it or powerful, negative groups had access to it.

So the knowledge had to be safeguarded and only given to those that were working in alignment with the law of one that had this kind of service to other philosophy.

So the knowledge had to be safeguarded. So Methuselah was responsible for that, he created a priesthood. And that priesthood was called the Order of Melchizedek. And Methuselah's grandson Melchizedek is born immaculately and creates the Order of Melchizedek. So Melchizedek is actually a contemporary of Noah. In other words, that probably would have been first cousins.

So Noah took humanity, the survivors on the ark as a destruction and brought back to Earth and repopulated. So he went on that space ark so he looked after the people. Melchizedek took with him the knowledge and he was the safeguard that with a priesthood.

So I would assume that he was on the same space ark as Noah. The people were there and when they came back, Noah helped to reestablish civilization and Melchizedek took the knowledge to these ancient repositories or built ancient repositories and safeguarded the knowledge for when humanity would be ready for it.

So this technology would only be shared with those people that were in alignment with the service-to-self philosophy. Now the great flood happened around 9,600 BC, the end of the Younger Dryas period.

That's historical fact. Now we know from other records the kings of Sumer or the emperors from Sumer, from China, Egypt, South America, Israel, India and so forth.

Some of these technologies were given to the righteous, to those that were following higher philosophies or following the Law of One.

So if for example you were saying think back to 5000 BC, 4000 BC, right? And you were a ruler in one of these regions of the Earth and you were a very righteous, very moral ruler. You would be approached by the order of Melchizedek and they would tell you, hey, we know that your heart is in the right place, you follow the law of one. Here is some technology which will help you better serve your people. But you can only use this technology under these conditions and those conditions were to keep the technology only for those that were ethically responsible. It wasn't to be distributed to any and all.

So it was only for righteous kings or people or emperors or queens, monarchs that followed the law of one.

So that was the situation in all of these kingdoms, Sumer, China, Egypt and so forth. Now we know that this happened in China, China's pyramids. Now these pyramids, now I did a webinar on China back in 2020 and I've written a book on China's Secret Space Program and I talk about the pyramids and the ancient knowledge that is buried in the pyramids in shanxi province. Now contemporary archaeologists and Chinese researchers will say, well, these are pyramids in shanxi province, I mean these are only dates to around 1000 BC to the period of the warring states. They only take to the state to the warring states period and this is when these different kings built these monuments to honor themselves.

Well that's actually not true. But there are records and I cite the records in my webinar in my book that show that the China's pyramids predate the great flood that happened around 9600 BC.

So this pyramid, it's not all of them, but many of them are over 11600 years old and they are repositories of the ancient knowledge that were preserved by those that followed the law of one. And so throughout history righteous Chinese rulers were given access to these technologies so that they could benefit the people. In China there's also the dropper stones. These were found in the border region of Tibetan China in 1937, 1938. They were translated in 1958 by Chinese scholar. They were found by carbon dating by Russian researchers to be 12,000 years old. So these were prior to the flood. And there were thousands of these stone disks that actually had incredible amount of information on them.

So this is the way in which knowledge was stored and handed down. And this gives us a clue as to how the knowledge was kept. So I'll talk a little bit more about this as we start talking about what's inside the whole of records that we know about.

So as I mentioned my book Rise of the Red Dragon and my webinar from 2020 that was a series of three webinars all together six hours. Now the Temple of Solomon. Now King Solomon, there are records I think it's called the, I always get the Talmud and the Torah confused.

One of them is stories about these ancient Hebrew patriarchs. So I think that's the Talmud. I think the Talmud are these stories. So in the Talmud you have these stories about Solomon. And Solomon had incredible technologies. He could fly from place to place. He had the ability to do things that suggested he had access to advanced technology. And he had access to Atlantean records. And these records were used by Solomon to build this incredible kingdom that flourished around the second millennium BC. And of course the Temple of Solomon even today is spoken of in awe in terms of the knowledge that was there.

So I think Solomon was one of these righteous rulers that followed the Law of One and that this Order of Melchizedek approached him and gave him some of the technologies and helped him establish this fabulous kingdom to teach the Law of One. And part of the teachings, part of the secret knowledge is an understanding of sacred geometry and outs used in the design of architectural structures such as the Temple of Solomon to raise consciousness to prepare people. Now we know there have been a number of people that talked about the pyramids, the design of the pyramids actually being able to elevate consciousness.

So that's well documented. But also the architecture of temples or cathedrals elevates consciousness as well. And there's a really interesting set of books or there's an interesting book by this mysterious person called Fulcanelli who talked about The mystery of the cathedrals and he made the case and this was originally written in French and translated into English and he made the point that the Renaissance that began in Italy in the say 13th, 14th centuries that was made possible because of these Gothic cathedrals that were built in the 12th century and that the design and the structure of these Gothic cathedrals were helping elevating human consciousness and that could change the way people perceive themselves and make possible the opening in European culture and consciousness to new ideas and new ways of doing things which is exactly what happened with the Renaissance that occurred from around 1250 to 1500. So this is a very important book.

So this is some of the information that has been released by this order of Melchizedek over the ages and I could talk more and more about different examples of this, but I just wanted to give you a sense that the preserved records from the ancient Atlanteans that were putting safe places and protected by this order of Melchizedek or a secret order of priests that would ensure that this knowledge would be preserved, protected and only released in a limited format to those that were righteous and ready for it and could responsibly ensure that this technology was used in the proper way.

So now where are these records? Where are these halls of records? Where are they held? Well this is the way we get to Edgar Cayce and he talks about three halls of records that were created by the Atlanteans. Now this by no means means that these are the only halls of records because there were other civilizations prior to the Atlanteans. I mentioned Lemuria, I mentioned Mu, I mentioned Hyperborea. All of these were civilizations that predated Atlantis and maybe even helped Atlantis flourish by their own sacred custodians of their temple, of their halls of records and I'll talk about that more later when we get to the Inner Earth. So for the ancient Atlanteans they established three halls of records according to Edgar Cayce.

So this is where he says, Edgar Cayce on the three halls of records in a reading that occurred in 1939, quote, "We find the entity was as the leading influence for the considering of ways and means in which there would be the preserving of records as well as ways means and manners in which either the few or the numbers might be preserved for the destruction of the lands."

So now Edgar Cayce on the three halls of records.

So there are three halls of records, "It would be well if this entity were to seek either of the three phases, the ways and means in which these records of the activities of individuals were preserved." There's a little cryptic, but what he's saying here is that there were three of these that were created. The one in the Atlantean land that's sent which will rise and is rising again.

So the main land of Atlantis, the one that Plato says was the bastion of the Atlantean Empire often talk often referred to as Poseidon. That was the main colony of Atlantis. Atlantis had many colonies, but that was one of them. So we're talking about prior to the Great Flood.

So Egypt as a civilization existed prior to 9,600 BC. And another in the Arian or Yucatan land with the temple there is a vision of the Great Flood. So Egypt as a civilization existed prior to 9,600 BC. And another in the Arian or Yucatan land with the temple there is of a shadowing.

So I'll give you a couple of examples of the Yucatan Peninsula where the whole of records is rumored to exist. So this is the map that one of Edgar Cayce researcher William Hutton from 2001, he mapped out these different halls of records and he distinguished between halls of records and great crystals. Because these great crystals were examples of these incredible technologies that the Atlanteans had built that were used for powering aircraft that could be used for powering homes.

So yes, imagine that. That you could power your home or you could fly because you were getting energy that was being transmitted in these standing waves that were associated with these great crystals that were found in different places around the planet. There was a grid. Atlanteans had established a worldwide grid of power centers and these great crystals. So were these great crystals and there were these halls or these repositories for the history of Atlantis, what we would tell a hall of records. He distributed those, he just identified. So there you go. That's a hall of record and a great crystal in the land of Egypt. Here you have what today is associated with the Azores. That is supposed to be the main land of Atlantis. That is the hall of records and a great crystal. And then you have over here a great crystal, and then over here in the Yucatan Peninsula.

So there, those are the locations of the halls of records and the great crystals according to Edgar Cayce. But in the hall of records under these things.

So under these things there is one of these ancient Atlantean repositories that was built by those that fled Atlantis prior to its destruction. And they took all of their records, all of their knowledge with them and reestablished or they actually went to an existing Atlantean colony in Egypt. And because the way Atlantis was structured was that the Atlanteans were revered by peoples all over the world as kind of like demigods if you like. Because the Atlanteans were not only incredible technologies, but they were very tall, psychically very powerful beings.

So those that took the Atlantean records with them to Egypt were regarded by the Egyptians there as demigods. So these Atlanteans were now regarded in Egypt as demigods. So they arrived in Egypt, they know Atlantis is doomed, there is an Atlantean colony in Egypt and they more or less took over or were exalted by the Egyptians there. And so the Atlanteans in Egypt built or played a role in building the pyramids and the Sphinx. And so then they established these halls of records under the Sphinx. And so that's where one of the Atlantean halls of records has been ever since. Now historically what we do know is that Herodotus is an ancient Greek historian who wrote in the 5th century BC and he talked about touring a massive labyrinth that was sitting on top an underground complex that had 3,000 chambers filled with ancient artifacts and he wasn't allowed to see that.

So Herodotus was given access to the labyrinth, it was huge, he described the labyrinth as far exceeding the monuments of ancient Greece. So it was the labyrinth itself was vast and amazing, but he said that it was sitting atop of something even larger that he wasn't allowed to see. Now more recently in 1978 the ground penetrating radar was used to detect manmade passageways, rivers and tunnels under the Giza complex. And these passageways were quite large and quite extensive.

So this was probably the first time that these were detected using ground penetrating radar. And one of the researchers that was made familiar with this was JJ Hurtak. I did an interview with him recently, you can go to my YouTube channel and you can watch the interview I did with him.

He led a scientific expedition based on the records or based on some of the data that the ground penetrating radar had been given to him. And he let a record and he was allowed to talk about some of the things that he discovered like the Temple of Osiris that was and he described it as a giant labyrinth or a metropolis at least 15,000 years old with chambers that are larger than the largest cathedrals ever erected by modern man.

Now he was he's not allowed to talk about this because JJ Hurtak he is a contactee for 1973 he had contact and he was read in into the programs. And I think he has had to straddle this very uncomfortable position of like being read into some of the programs being used in some of these official programs and being allowed to talk a little bit about it, but not to talk too much about it otherwise he'll get into trouble.

So he's had to straddle that, but he was allowed to talk about his expedition in 1997 to Giza and where he found this Temple of Osiris. Now JJ Hurtak as I said I think is very unique because he has been operating since the 1970s and trying to kind of reveal a little bit about what's going on, but he's been kind of like prevented from talking too much because the US intelligence community, the deep state don't want too much of the truth being revealed.

Fortunately for us there's been a new source on the Egyptian Hall of Records and there's this book which is book three in a series of books called the Transylvania series that is all that by this mysterious person called Radu Cinamar who is Romanian and he's like a someone who was read into the programs because he had extraterrestrial contact experiences. Now this is one of the things I found and again and again I found it in researching people such as George Adamski, Alex Collier, JJ Hurtak, others other contactees that the once the intelligence community determined that these are genuine extraterrestrial contact is publicly they're ridiculed, but officially or covertly they're brought in and read in to a certain extent given access and they're told hey you tell us what's going on with your contacts with these ETs.

You tell us what the ETs are up to and we'll tell you a little bit about what we know and you can tell us what's going on so there's a trade, but there's a secrecy so Radu Cinamar is a Romanian version of someone that is a contact team that was read in because of his contacts with an extraterrestrial and this is this extraterrestrial was a female and I'll talk about her a little bit later.

He traveled to Tibet we have an extraterrestrial contact so Radu Cinamar has talked about going through a tunnel from the Bucegi mountains in Romania to Egypt to the Hall of Records in Egypt and I think I showed this slide in my last webinar so I won't spend too much time in that on this, but in this Hall of Records in Egypt there were these cylinders these discs that were holographic records and he described thousands of discs up to 10,000 discs that were stored in these holograph that was stored with storing holographic records that would play for like two days just showing historical events both on planet and off planet so these are Atlantean records they remember all the one I mentioned the epigraph said that the fleeing Atlanteans took information about the stars and the movements of constellation the movement of stars and constellations with them as they fled Atlantis.

So this tells us these are some of the some of the holographic records of not only our history on Earth, but also the history of the Galactics, how did Galactics choose to colonize Earth how was the Earth seeded, which extraterrestrial civilizations were involved in the seeding of Atlantis versus the extraterrestrials involved in the seeding of Lemuria or were involved in the seeding of Moon and so forth, all in the Hall of Records found in Egypt so he described this Hall of Records that was directly accessible from a tunnel found in the Bucegi Mountains of Romania.

Another source is Elena Danaan and Elena was a professional archaeologist she worked in Egypt as a field archaeologist from 1999 to 2007 and her work was helping preserve and restore some of the hieroglyphs in the Carnac temple complex of Egypt.

So she was working as a professional and so she got to work this top-notch archaeologists at the time she said she describes four experiences involving Egypt's Hall of Records and now her first experience or wasn't her first experience, but probably the most significant experience was that she said she in 1998 or 1999 she begins work as a field archaeologist.

So 1998 she was, I think, a student doing an internship in Egypt working on some of the records or some of the hieroglyphs there in in the Giza complex so she was taken by Zahi Hawass the famous archaeologist.

So there she is. So people that want evidence that Elena Danaan is more than just making stories, well there you are she's got documentary evidence showing that she was working with people like Zahi Hawass and she had access to some of the records in Egypt.

So she says Zahi Hawass told her that that they had found a Hall of Records in Egypt under the Sphinx and he said you want to see it. In 1998 she's a student doing an internship. She says, "Yes sure, show me," so he starts taking her down and then she describes an experience that she's going to describe this in her next book. I'm really looking forward to that. I don't know if she's got a title yet, but she says it'll come out I think June or July, her next book where she goes into detail into what happened there, so definitely worth reading.

That's a plug for her next book so she describes what happened and how at the last moment she had to turn back that Zahi Hawass was going to show her the Egyptian Hall of Records, but she being very young and inexperienced said "No, no, no," because she was she was feeling a lot of very intense energy and had to say "No, no, no, take me back", but so that was one experience, but she also describes three times that she was taken to the Egyptian Hall of Records by the Galactic Federation of Worlds where she saw ancient records and technologies on one of her visits.

The most recent one, her fourth visit she was with Jean Charles Moyer and I think both Jean Charles and Elena will be watching this webinar so Aloha to both of you, two of my favorite people.

So they saw a hall of records or an ark under the Giza complex in April of 2022. So I did an interview with them so on youtube where you can see my interview where they describe both of them being taken at the same time to this hall of records under the Giza complex and in my last webinar I talked about them being taken to a space ark under Lake Vostok in Antarctica then after that experience where they both were taken to Egypt. So it's very, very rare for two contactees to have similar experiences in different parts of the world.

So this is part of the big reveal that the extraterrestrials are working with people like Elena with Jean Charles to reveal to us the existence and the reality of these ancient halls of records, of these space arks to give us confidence that this is very real about Jean Charles and Elena, very much. I've spent a bit of time with Jean Charles and yes he is the real deal and his information checks out.

He showed me physical records, documents proving some of the claims he's made and I'm not able to reveal those, that's for Jean Charles to reveal when the time is right.

Now the other hall of records that Edgar Cayce talked about was in the Yucatan. So Cayce said that the Atlantean records were carried to another hall of records in the Yucatan.

There was this bloke now for those of you that haven't had the benefit of traveling to wonderful Australia, a bloke is what the Americans call a guy or a personage in France so Iltar was this bloke and he took ten of his followers to the Yucatan peninsula where they built a temple and a repository or a hall of records that sank during the destruction of Atlantis.

So this again before the Great Flood so, but Edgar Cayce predicted that "as time draws nigh when changes are about to come about the temple by Iltar will then rise again."

So that was in 1933. So the Yucatan hall of records according to William Hutton, I mentioned him earlier, it is, he claims that there's a submerged hall of records that is located in the Campeche bank which is about there in the Yucatan peninsula so this whole area here is the Yucatan peninsula. [points to map]

That's the Yucatan peninsula right there. So the Campeche bank the Yucatan is around there. So that's one place where Edgar Cayce said there was a hall of records in the Yucatan. Now Cayce researchers are debating whether it's in this place the Campeche bank in the Yucatan or whether it's in this other place in called Pedras Negras in Guatemala.

So that's Guatemala right there so Yucatan peninsula also includes Pedras Negras Guatemala and so Edgar Cayce said that the University of Pennsylvania was doing excavations at the Yucatan hall of records back in 1933 and that is in fact what was happening and so in this book The Lost Hall of Records by John van Auken and Lora Little they say that at that time the University of Pennsylvania were only conducting excavations in this place in the Yucatan Pedras Negras therefore must be where the hall of records is located so that's another possible location for the second of the Atlantean hall of records and so the third hall of records is near the Azores which is where the main colony of Atlantis was Cayce predicted that the hall of records on Atlantis main island would begin to rise in 1968.

So of course it sank around 9600 BC, but around 1968 it would begin to arise so Edgar Cayce researchers were very excited by this prospect, of course, thinking well it's going to rise so when a 7.6 earthquake struck the Azores in 1968 and led to a significant shift in land masses so for Edgar Cayce researchers this was vindication that the land was indeed beginning to rise as Cayce predicted. So we don't know when the hall of records that sunken under somewhere next to the Azores will rise, but apparently it's soon to do so.

So another source for a hall of records is a Lobsang Rampa now back in the 1980s and I've made this before a lot of you were born, but that's when I actually began my kind of like awakening if you like to a bigger picture of paranormal phenomena.

In 1984 I had kind of like an awakening if you like two books really took me on the journey of the paranormal at that time I wasn't really interested in ETs and extraterrestrials that only happened in 2001, but in 1984 I had my awakening where I read these books one was by Lyle Watson a British researcher it was called Supernature and another one was by Raynor Johnson called The imprisoned splendor, so I began my research into the paranormal.

So in the 1980s I'm reading a whole bunch of books and I read this book by Lobsang Rampa and Lobsang Rampa this book was published in 1963 the Tibetan Sage entering the hall of records actually to be honest I don't know if I don't think I read this particular book I read. I mean Lobsang Rampa wrote a number of books. I read some of the some of the earlier books The Rampa Story and so forth. So this is a book I hadn't read, but I read it just recently because I became interested of course in halls of records.

I was really astonished to find that Lobsang Rampa had written back in the 1960s about a hall of records in Tibet in a place called Mount Kailash which is revered as a sacred mountain in Tibet. So Lobsang Rampa says that he was taken to this hall of records where he witnesses past and future events.

So he saw records of lost civilizations prior to Atlantis. So what that tells us is that the Atlanteans established three halls of records, the one at the Azores, the one at the great Sphinx under the Sphinx in Egypt and the third in the Yucatan Peninsula, but there are also halls of records from prior civilizations that are around the world and that one of those is this hall of records in Tibet. So this hall of records in Tibet is where he got to see the history of earlier civilizations.

So from that we can assume it had the history of like the Lumurians those from Hyperboreans and even prior to that so these were lost civilizations prior to Atlantis and in the Tibetan Sage the entering the hall of records.

He talks about extraterrestrial Seeders now I talked about the 24

extraterrestrial Seeder races in my last webinar so I don't need to go into that into any great detail now, but what's important here is that Lobsang Rampa corroborates that these extraterrestrial saucers were associated with the establishment of these earlier civilizations and helped them in creating these halls of records. So this is what Lobang Rampa says that he saw in the Cave of the Ancients.

He saw holograms of ancient events p. 73

I think you can actually get a free PDF you just go to scribble.com to get it.

He saw ancient anti-gravity flying machines in a huge cave in Tibet p. 73

Now does that ring a bell anyone did do you remember these expeditions that the Ahnenerbe Society launched in what was it 1938-1939 searching for the lost records and secrets of ancient civilizations. This is what the Nazis were seeking, the Cave of the Ancients. I don't think they found it because Lobsang Rampa described how well hidden it was and how difficult it was to find, but nevertheless the Nazis were looking for it.

Similar halls of records in Egypt and South America p.73

Okay so South America Pedras Negras, that is Central America, but he might be referring to another one in South America probably Mayan pyramids elsewhere.

Says that the hall of records preserved for a time when humanity would be ready for the advanced technology. p.73

Again that same theme that's like these halls of records were built by the fleeing survivors of ancient civilizations that had been established with the help of extraterrestrial Seeder races and the fleeing survivors with the help of the extraterrestrials. Remember in the Book of Enoch he describes the extraterrestrials helping him preserve these records through Methuselah who helped set up a priestly order that would be headed by his grandson Melchizedek.

So this was all being done with a collaboration between these Seeder extraterrestrials and humans that were followers of the law of one ethically responsible of an ancient priesthood that would preserve these ancient records all for a time when humanity is ready.

Think about that. This is the time, just think about that. I'll be coming back to that.

An anti-gravity platform p.78

He describes a square antigravity platform to be used for transportation

Hieroglyphs explained ancient historical events p.78

So there's a lot there so this is Mount Kailash in Tibet and Jean Charles Moyer described being taken there where he actually got to see this hall of records and I think he described it as an ark, as a hall of records. That's something he can clarify at some point later, but he was taken there and he saw this and described some of the records that were there.

So there is a hall of records in Tibet as well at Mount Kailash and of course the Chinese are very interested in this and have been looking for this. So think about why the Chinese were so eager to conquer Tibet and why it is that they had been getting control over the monasteries and torturing the llamas and so forth. Now another interesting phenomenon is the Wingmakers and the ancient arrow project that was established because apparently there was something very similar found in 1972 in Chaco canyon in New Mexico this concludes part one.

Hall of Records, Portals, the Inner Earth and Our ET Heritage - A Second Look (part 2)

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=pszsjeLWS8Y> Apr 24, 2025

We now continue with part two of Dr. Salla's mind-expanding disclosure of ancient halls of records portal technologies Inner Earth societies star seed potentials and humanity's extraterrestrial heritage.

DR. SALLA: Now another interesting phenomenon is the Wingmakers and the Ancient Arrow Project that was established because apparently there was something very similar found in 1972 in Chaco Canyon, New Mexico, USA, that was dated back to the 8th century AD by a colony of, now it's not clear if we're talking about extraterrestrials or we're talking about time travelers from 800 years in the future, but they had apparently established a colony in the 8th century AD with the ancient, well with the Indian tribes at that time and that they called themselves the Wingmakers.

So the NSA started a Project Ancient Arrow in 1973, but shelved it as advanced technology can't be decoded.

So at the Wingmakers ancient arrow site in 1994, apparently there was a rock slide and it revealed 23 more chambers and this is when the NSA got or created an organization, I think it was already probably in existence the Advanced Contact Intelligence Organization ACIO that took over the Project Ancient Arrow to explore what's in there.

So that is also, I'm not quite sure you could say that it's a hall of records. It's a kind of interesting hybrid because it doesn't date from a pre-flood civilization that dates to a 12th century AD colony established by extraterrestrials or future time travelers, but nevertheless I thought it would be very interesting as we kind of like all educate ourselves because I'm sure many of you watching this, you've got maybe a lot more information about these different pieces of the puzzle that I've been talking about and you can maybe share with me or share with your audiences more about these different sources.

Now the hall of records in the Bucegi Mountains, I talked about this in my last webinar Transylvania Sunrise, that's the first book in the series that talks about this hall of records in this mountain chain right there in the center of Romania.

So here you have Romania, right there. Over here you have this area called Moldova which is a former Soviet republic where you have a breakaway regional South Ossetia which is populated by Russians that want to secede and join Russia and down here interesting enough is Ukraine. Isn't that interesting? Where all the fighting is happening? Well they're not fighting down here, but isn't it interesting that there's a war in Ukraine right next to Romania.

But say in Romania you have Bucegi Mountains, I mean these are Bucegi Mountains over here and it's right in the center of Romania and there's a Sphinx there and under that Sphinx there is this hall of records. So this is a beautiful diagram created by Angelica, my wonderful wife that did the trailer, wonderful trailer for this webinar.

So there you have an image showing this hemisphere-shaped chamber under the Bucegi Mountains. Over on the top you have this Sphinx, I think the Sphinx is over here and I think it's called the Babel or the Old Woman and underneath it you have this chamber, this very large hemisphere-shaped chamber that's protected by an electromagnetic device and only people with the right frequency initially could pass through it. And of course there's a long passageway from the tunnel entrance. So that's the tunnel entrance. So you've got to go through this tunnel, that's also protected by an electromagnetic device. It was discovered in 2003 by ground penetrating radar. The Bucegi Mountain Complex was discovered in 2003 ground penetrating radar and once they found the tunnel entrance there was electromagnetic protective devices and they eventually traveled through the tunnel and then they got to the hemisphere and in the middle of it was this chamber which really could describe as a Hall of Records.

So that's a layer in Transylvania Sunrise, that's how it's described. So you could read that on page 135, an excellent book. I highly recommend the Transylvania book series, read all of them, book one, Transylvania Sunrise goes into the Bucegi Mountain Complex and read them in order.

I made the mistake of reading book one and then I thought, I'm a pretty smart bloke. Well I can jump to book six and read that because that interests me. I started reading book six and I thought, oh man, I lost my way here, so I had to go to book two.

So really read them in sequence.

So that's book one, Transylvania Sunrise. And here you have the layout of the projection room which is in the middle. And what's interesting here is that there are these three tunnels. So each of these tunnels, this one leads to Egypt, this one leads into the Inner Earth and this one goes to Tibet, very interesting, the Inner Earth and Tibet, yes.

So the layout of the projection room, in the middle you have a time travel device or projection so you can go through time, forward and backwards in time. Down here you have these tables, all these tables, a bunch of tables around the circumference and these are holographic tables and they show history from different eras of human history. And up the top here you have some kind of, also a time travel device.

So that's a projection device you can see again, plays discs, different discs that show in history.

So anyway, so that's the Hall of Records in the Bucegi. So, incredible revelations and you could follow up on all of those to get more details about each of those Halls of Records.

Now the obvious question here is why don't we know about this? Why isn't this being studied in universities? Why aren't universities all over this? This is where you have the top thinkers of our planet located and this information belongs in universities so that scholars and scientists and the best people could study this information to see how it can be best used for helping to progress human society. Because that's why universities are. Obviously I'm biased, I was a former university professor and I think that the ideal of the university is a very noble one which is to share knowledge for the benefit of all humanity.

Unfortunately, universities are manipulated. Only limited information is allowed to percolate to universities. I think it was best put by a fellow researcher Michael Cremo. Michael Cremo, he said that it is knowledge filtration and that describes it perfectly. What the cabal or the Deep State, the controllers do is knowledge filtration. What they do is they filter out any information like anything I've been talking about from it going to places like university to the people who are trained, who are equipped, who have the right noble intent of exploring and understanding and presenting all this information for the benefit of all humanity.

Because at the bottom line I know universities get a bad rap as places of manipulation and whether knowledge is distorted. I don't think that's correct. I think it's more about knowledge filtration where the rank and file university professors and the graduate students are prevented from having access to this information. And who's doing it? Who is responsible for holding all of this information back from all of us?

These guys, Freemasons, these guys are the ones that put themselves in the position of authority for finding these halls of records and keeping them secret. The Freemasons are the ones. These are the ones that are responsible for keeping all of this from everyone, from you, from me, from all of those researchers and universities that would just jump at the opportunity for going into one of these halls of records to understand the incredible wisdom that's there and studying it, presenting it for the benefit of all humanity.

It's not happening because of these guys. Now why these guys? Why am I targeting Freemasons? Why not the Cabal? Why not the Jesuits? Why not the Luciferians? Well, there is a network here, but the Freemasons are in particular responsible for this. Now to explain why the Freemasons are responsible.

Now their origins date back to the King of Solomon's Temple, to Euclid of Alexandria of Egypt. The Freemasons' origins date back because at that time it was understood that sacred geometry, that the way in which geometry operated could impact human consciousness. I already mentioned about the Temple of Solomon and architecture impacting human consciousness. So Freemasons date themselves to that movement. They understood that this is indeed the case. And they believe in the great architect of the universe.

So they believe that just as architectural design can impact human consciousness.

So the universe is also designed in a certain way to impact consciousness.

So that's their origins. And of course Euclid of Alexandria is known as the founder of modern geometry. So the Freemasons revere him as someone that is fundamental to understanding both the nature of geometry and why it's important.

So nothing unusual there. I mean that's all very noble because correct as well.

So Freemasonry's origins, I have no quibble with that. Modern day Freemasons, stone-mason guilds appear in the middle ages during the reign of King Athelstan in England. Around 900 AD, stone-mason guilds evolved into Freemason which pursues international Freemasonry, international philanthropy.

Again, no quibble with that. I don't quibble with a rank and file Freemasons that are dedicated to understanding the impact of architecture on human consciousness. I mean, I think that probably I mentioned earlier Fulcanelli and the role of cathedrals in sparking the Renaissance in Italy and in Europe.

All of that was no doubt supported by Freemasons even behind it. And of course Freemasons we know were behind the American Revolution in the 1770s.

So there's a lot of good in Freemasonry.

So please don't get me wrong and say that and think that I'm accusing Freemasonry as being this kind of satanic organization. It's not.

There's a lot of good there and at its core it understands the nature of geometry and sacred geometry and how it impacts human consciousness.

However, Freemason leaders have been corrupted as the ones that run the organization at the highest levels 33 degree and above. They have a hidden agenda in seeking to control historic sites.

So these are the guys that are in control of this kind of like worldwide philanthropic network of Freemasons that have enormous resources and pursue work of uplift for helping philanthropy and helping societies move forward.

So these Freemasons are controlled by leaders that use that as a cover for finding these halls of records that I've been talking about, finding them and not making the information in them available for the good of humanity, but holding it for themselves. That's what's going on.

So how do I know this or am I just speaking through my backside or something. How do I know this? Well, one source that I think is very, very reliable is William Tompkins. He is someone that has come forward to talk about the Navy's Secret Space Program. He has very solid credentials. He worked for Douglas Aircraft Company in 1950s on Help Douglas come up with designs for a future series of space carriers that would be built by the US Navy. And he has the credentials and I've talked about it. He has talked about it in the second book in my series, the US Navy Secret Space Program. You can go there where I outline his background and why he's a solid source. Now he said, he talked also a lot about Freemasons and at the time when he first told me this, I did a lot of phone interviews with Bill Tompkins. And again and again he'd say the Freemasons, the Freemasons, the Freemasons are stuffing things up. They are effing things up. And it's just like I really didn't know. What's this thing with Freemasons? Why is he so hung up on Freemasons? That was back in 2015 and 16 that we were having these conversations.

So I didn't really know why in particular the Freemasons, because I'd heard from others the Jesuits and the Illuminati and the Cabal. That these were the ones that were behind the global control system. Freemasons hadn't heard of that, but he was on the Freemasons. And it told me a story about his father, which convinced me about this. Now his father and his father's brother were 33rd degree Freemasons. And he said that his father became very successful in Hollywood. He built up a company that would dub American films in foreign languages and distribute them to an international audience. And so his company was very successful in making a lot of money.

So his father was a 33-degree Freemason and obviously philanthropy, right? That's part of the Freemasonry Order, right? Well, Bill Tompkins said what happened. He said that his father was approached by a group of people from the Freemasons' society, from the Freemasons' higher levels than the 33 degree. The leaders, his bosses in the Freemasonry Order. And they told him, point blank. They said, we want you to include these in your films. No doubt, some subliminal messages or something that would make the population easily manipulated. Well, Bill Tompkins' father was more ethical than that. And he said, "No." Bill Tompkins said that what happened then was that the Freemason hierarchy removed his father from that position and that Bill Tompkins' father then couldn't find a job.

So he goes from making a lot of money, having these mansions and living the fast life to now being like virtually on the street and actually had to live with his brother for a while. And now Bill Tompkins says that now he's living with his uncle, his father's brother, who's also a 33-degree Freemason.

And he said that his uncle would go to Egypt every year and come back with a lot of these antiquities. A lot of these Egyptian antiquities. And that these were basically being hoarded by him and other Freemasons.

So this tells you how the Freemasons operate. That there's a corrupt leadership in place. And if you do their bidding, then you get rewarded. And if you don't do that bidding, you get the stick.

So the whole carrots and stick are perhaps nothing really too complex about that.

So this is how Bill Tompkins relates the Freemasons to the negative extraterrestrials.

And this is what he said in Selected by Extraterrestrials. Essentially, they, the draconian extraterrestrials, own planet Earth too. We have to go back not just the brotherhood, but the Freemasons again. Because they're the ones that are running the secret organizations.

So the Freemasons are running the secret organizations. And so we're talking about an order that has a lot of power that goes back to the Temple of Solomon. And of course, there's a lot of information about the Knights Templar's, how the Knights Templar's were initially known as the Knights of the Temple of Solomon. And that's the knowledge that they got from the Temple of Solomon was used by them to establish this incredible European system of knowledge and wealth and commerce that the Knights Templar's established the early banks. And then they had to evacuate after the King of France and the Pope turned against them and they had to evacuate to Scotland and England where they established the Scottish rite 33-degree Freemasonry order.

So it's very complex. I won't profess to understand it all, but there certainly is a lot of history here to be traced out. But Bill Tompkins is saying that the draconian control of the Freemasons. And that's a fairly recent phenomenon. Now, Elena Danaan also had her experience with the Freemasons. And this is something she's going to talk about in her forthcoming book.

So I won't talk too much about it. I'll just give you a very general. But she said that during her time in Egypt, she learned on several occasions that the Freemasons secretly controlled many archaeological sites.

So they were in that the Freemasons were controlling the archaeological expeditions in Egypt and that Egyptian antiquities leaders such as Zahi Hawass were controlled by the Freemasons over what they could disclose to the world.

So this explains a lot because Zahi Hawass is someone when the ground penetrating radar first showed that there was an enormous complex under the under the Giza pyramid. Probably this labyrinth system that her relatives described back in the 5th century, radar penetrating data showed that it was right there under the Giza complex. And Zahi Hawass saw this and began talking about it. And that's actually documented. He began talking about it. He's saying, yes, we discovered this incredible thing underneath. Then the Freemasons coming and said, "Shut the fuck up." And that's what he did. He shut up. And Zahi Hawass then denied it. And he began ridiculing Western scholars saying that all this was nonsense. This was just our Western scholars speculating making things up. So if Zahi Hawass had to change his tune and he would do it.

So that's one source, another source. Now we have a third source, Radu Clnamar, which is a pseudonym in the Transylvania book series. He also talks about high level Italian, high level Italian, Bilderberg Freemason that had access to the highest level of the Romanian government and attempted to control the Hall of Records found under the Bucegi Mountains, even prior to its official discovery in August 2003.

So that in August 2003, which was when the Hall of Records in Romania was discovered, this high level Italian Freemason who also participated in the Bilderberg group meetings already had the data. And it was already there telling the Romanian secret service. This is where you can find an incredible discoveries and we want to be there and we want to be part of how that is going to be revealed.

And this is how the Freemasons established a control over or exerted influence over the discovery of the Hall of Records in Romania and have made sure that it has not been officially revealed up until the modern day. So more about that soon.

So now I'm going to get to space time portals. Okay. All right.

So I'm going a little over time here. I might go a little bit longer. Space time portals will probably take about another 35 minutes to finish the presentation.

So that's space time portals. So these are portals that are used to be able to access these Hall of Records that are being talking about so far.

So what are they? Okay. So some of the first information about portals were revealed by these people associated with the Montauk Project that Preston Nichols, Al Bielek, Duncan Cameron, Peter Moon, they were all involved in putting out a series of books called the Montauk Project. The first book appeared in 1992 and that was by Preston Nichols working with Peter Moon and that detailed the Montauk Project that lasted for 1971. And the goal was to develop invisibility, mind control, time travel, portal technology with the help of contractors such as IT&T.

So major contractors were involved with that. And so there was a portal system that they were trying to learn about and it involved, first of all, acquiring an understanding of how time travel technology was used and how to create portals and how to control time travel.

So the Montauk chair.

So this was something that Duncan Cameron, who was a highly gifted psychic, he used the psychic abilities to control. And this chair that was really advanced extraterrestrial technology that was used for time travel.

So there you have the Montauk chair that was used to be able to create these portals. And so one of these portals was to Mars.

So Preston Nichols says that Duncan Cameron in 1982, 1983 was able to use a time portal to travel back and forth to Mars. And that Al Bielek, who was one of the other principal people involved with the Montauk Project that he and Duncan Cameron used the portal technologies to visit Mars.

So that was one of the first references. This book from 1992 was one of the first references to portals being used to travel to Mars. Now there's this book, the Montauk Chronicles, that shows, so it's not a book, it's actually a documentary.

So you can find it, you can do a search, I think it's on Vimeo, so go to Vimeo, Montauk Chronicles, probably on YouTube, you can find the trailer.

So it describes how up to 300,000 children were used in experiments conducted during the Montauk Project from 1971 to 1983. To fine-tune the portal system to travel to Mars. And that was one of the primary goals of the Montauk Project. To be able to develop and refine portal travel to places, not only on Earth, but to Mars. And so they used children for these old experiments. And these children, many of them didn't survive.

So that's all detailed in the Montauk Chronicles. Now Andy Basiago is also a witness to these portal technologies.

So he says that in 1966, 67, as a six-year-old, he was first used as a subject of this technology by a company where his father worked. The company was the Ralph M. Parsons Engineering Company. And the company was doing contracting work for the Defense Advanced Research Projects Agency, its forerunner, and the CIA.

So the CIA and DARPA were doing, at the time it was called ARPA, but now it's called DARPA. The CIA was doing research into portal technology in the 1960s and 1970s. And we know this from the Montauk Project.

So Andy Basiago was involved in some of the earliest portal technology development projects in the 1960s. Andy Basiago described it as project Pegasus, and that involved many children in assessing its suitability from 1969 and 1972.

So this was kind of like a forerunner to the Montauk Project. In a way, you can consider this as like a pilot program to find out, well, does the portal technology work? And if so, let's move into a higher gear, like a work in progress to refine it for full development.

So that was the Montauk Project.

So project Pegasus was kind of like a pilot program, and Andy Basiago also says that children were used for that. And he was one of the child participants in that. He described many injuries and fatalities amongst the children who were subjected to that in the 1970s.

Jumproom to Mars.

So that was what he said he was involved with, that there was a portal technology that could be used to take people from Earth to Mars. He described also, portal technology being used to take people from Pasadena in California to places in New Mexico or the IT&T facility in New Jersey and so forth.

So this was portal technology being used for all over the Earth. So that was in the 1980s that he was involved in another program called Jumproom to Mars. And he described other people, William Stilings, William White, Crow and Bernard Bindez, who all confirmed this was actually going on.

So you have the famous sci-fi book series, Edgar Rice Burroughs, John Carter of Mars, and you've probably all seen John Carter at the movies. If you haven't watched it, it's really very informative in terms of soft disclosure, because that is a good description of how portal technology works.

A natural portal connecting Earth and Mars. It's not sci-fi, it's real. It's real folks. The US government, Montauk Project, Project Pegasus, Jumproom to Mars, some of the programs did to develop these portal technologies. But Edgar Rice Burroughs, well, early 1900s, was writing about this as sci-fi.

So the portal system, what else do we know? Who else has talked about portals? More recently from around 2015-2016, I worked very closely with Corey Goode and David Wilcock in examining some of the secret space program experiences that Corey Goode had. And he also talked about the portals. He said, quote, "There are the natural portal systems that are part of the known universe. We call it the cosmic web. And the ancient portal systems and the current era portal systems use or exploit these natural cosmic web portal systems to travel from point to point."

And I remember reading Alex Collier also describing the Patal or the founders being responsible for developing an ancient portal system that would be available to the public. That would connect different parts of the galaxy to one another. And that the oldest extraterrestrial civilizations didn't know much about the builders of the portal system. So that seems to be something that connects to the galaxy. And he went on to say that the ancient portal systems, and there are several ancient portal systems that are left behind by several ancient groups that have been found on Earth, they vary in their sophistication.

So these portal systems, the ones that were developed by these ancient builder races, he talked about one that was left behind in Antarctica. I mentioned, Elena Danaan earlier, she also was talking about Antarctica as having a portal system in Antarctica that could be used.

So how you navigate the portal system? Well, apparently there are these numerical coordinates based on the hyperdimensional mathematics, designate different galaxies, solar systems, planets, etc. that form the address for a particular portal. Now this is a sacred geometry, folks, so this is very important.

Now, earlier on I was trying to understand why is it that the Freemasons are so important? Why is it that they control access to a lot of this information? And then the dominant in all the secret societies, why are they the ones that are important? Because the Freemasons, they trace their lineage, as I said, to the Temple of Solomon, to Euclid, to those that understood geometry.

The Freemasons, they are the ones that understand geometry and sacred geometry. They understand the geometry used for how to navigate the portal system. That's why the Freemasons have this incredible position of authority in terms of secret societies. They understand the portal system because they understand how sacred geometry works. They have the minds and sacred geometry. I mean, if anyone that's read Buckminster Fuller, I mean, I've got a PhD, so I regard myself as I've got a healthy ego, let's say. But I read Buckminster Fuller and I was embarrassed. I kind of felt like an idiot. I was like, I can't understand this stuff. It's a pretty complex stuff. You've got to have a certain mind to understand Buckminster Fuller.

So Buckminster Fuller and those that understand sacred geometry, platonic solids and so forth you have to have a really, really good mind for that and Freemasons have that, which is why they have this privileged position when it comes to understanding the use, the control of the portal systems and what is in these halls of records and how you can access the halls of records and the information within it.

Now, the problem is, as I mentioned, a lot of Freemasons are very benevolent people. Philanthropists are at heart, but at the 33-degree level and above you have the leadership that are totally controlled and manipulated by the Draconians, and they make sure that this information does not get out.

So the ancient portals and Stargate SG-1. I have now soft disclosure, Stargate SG-1. Here's the Cosmic Disclosure that was the series on Gaia TV before Gaia took it down because of, I don't want to get into that. That's beyond my pay grade.

So this is in Cosmic Disclosure. The ancient systems, these are physical like ancient physical devices, and there's an ancient physical device just like it in the show Stargate that has spread across many solar systems.

So that's what David Wilcox and Corrie Goode talked about back in 2016 in Portals, the Cosmic Web series.

So Stargate SG-1 is soft disclosure. Well, listen, was Stargate SG-1 soft disclosure? I love the series. Watch it again and again, because it really is soft disclosure. For those of you that haven't watched it, if you want to understand how portal systems work, how it's related to geometry and Stargate navigation throughout the galaxy using sophisticated, hyperdimensional mathematics and so forth, watch Stargate SG-1. In the credits for the original Stargate SG-1, it talked about US Space Command.

Now, Space Command was abolished in 2002 and resurrected in 2019. There's a story to that, but I don't have much time, so I won't go into the backstory for why Space Command was abolished in 2002, maybe during the Q&A, someone will ask that question. Was it soft disclosure? Here you have in February 5, 2001, no less than the US Air Force Chief of Staff Did a cameo on one of the episodes, Season 4 of Stargate SG-1.

Chief of Staff General Michael E. Ryan appeared and played a role, a cameo. This is the official Air Force Chief of Staff telling you, the audience that this is soft disclosure. This is officially sanctioned. Okay, so this is soft disclosure. And it happened a second time in case you didn't get it the first time around. Okay, soft disclosure for dummies. In case you don't get the first time, here's the second time.

So another US Air Force Chief of Staff General P. Jumper appeared in The Lost City Season 7, again doing a cameo. Why would two US Air Force serving chiefs of staff do cameos on Stargate SG-1? Because, folks, it was soft disclosure. If you haven't watched it, watch it. Well worth it. And Stargate SG-1, Pole Navigation, it came out with the 7-digit vector system used in Stargate SG-1, a higher-mathematics coordinate system based on sacred geometry used in the wormhole system.

So as soon as you see the word sacred geometry this is exactly the sort of thing that Freemasons are involved in, which is why they have an outsized role in all of this.

So Emery Smith, I mean now he hosts Cosmic Disclosure on Gaia TV. I think he's done a really good job in that. Love Emery, look forward to interviewing him and I think he wants to do an interview with me at some point will make it happen.

So here's Emery when he was serving for the US Air Force. He was a surgical first assist for the US Air Force. And he says that he worked in the official portal program for the US Air Force.

So he served in several dozen portal missions.

So this is the real Stargate program in the US Air Force, where each required three to six months of preparation. Teams comprise six to seven highly trained personnel with multiple specialties and that one trained for several missions simultaneously leading to an average of a mission per month that describe both natural and artificial portals.

So Emery Smith confirming that portals exist, that the US Air Force had an official portal program using hyperdimensional physics to be able to navigate between them.

So you can be sure the high level Freemasons were involved in that program.

So Smith's description of the portals he described in this way as rectangular devices and you walk in and come out at some other point.

Now there's the Romania Tibet portal in Transylvania Moonrise, that's Book 2 in the series. Radu Cinamar describes going through a portal on the Bucegi mountain that links directly to Tibet and he meets with this yidam or a deity according to Vedic legend called Machandi who meets Radu Cinamar. And she's this female extraterrestrial seven-foot-tall that exudes love and goodwill and really kind of like gives him a lot of information and kind of helps him move forward in his path. And this was an instrumental in him getting to be read into the joint US Romanian. Bucegi investigation or project.

So with Machandi likely connected to one of the 24 extraterrestrial Seeder races that I've talked before.

So I think she's connected and just for interest. I did an interview with a French contactee. His name is Robert L.

So there's an article on exopolitics.org. You can find it. That's in the title French Contactee.

Now to talk about Robert L. That was something that Elena Daanan helped set up for me.

So thanks to Elena for that. And he talked about going to a Himalayan base where he worked for a year with an extraterrestrial female and other extraterrestrial scientists. And he described them in terms that were very similar to what Radu Cinamar described about Machandi. So that's Robert L in that article.

So take a look at that. Now in book six [Forgotten Genesis] of the series. There are three types of portals that are described.

So I've already described some of these.

Three types of portals.

So the fixed portal, a fixed one, is described as very rare and not well known. For example, there was one in an old house in Bavaria this described in page 88 of the Forgotten Genesis book. And it's this old house in Bavaria is linked to a 200-year-old home in Detroit, Michigan. So essentially if you go into this house in Bavaria. You walk into one room and there's a portal there.

So you walk through the portal and you instantaneously appear in Detroit, Michigan in this 200-year-old house. And the way it's described in the book is that agents from the German security services were tracking mysterious people going in and out of this old house in Bavaria. And simultaneously FBI agents were tracking mysterious people kind of exiting and entering this old house in Detroit, Michigan.

So basically the two sets of agents synchronistically watched the houses in Bavaria and in Detroit, Michigan at the same time.

So these are agents. These German agents go through the portal in Bavaria. Four of them go through the portal in Bavaria with their arms loaded and show up in this room with the portal exits in Detroit, Michigan. And there are three FBI agents. And so all seven of them pointed their guns at each other and said, Hey, this is law enforcement and each other showed their IDs on and after a while they worked out what was going on.

So these portals, these fixed portals from point A to point B have been around for a long time. And they're used by mysterious persons, whether they are occultists, alchemists, Freemasons, eternalists, people that can live for a long, long time. Inner Earthers, etc. Not known to public officials.

So these are government representatives, FBI agents, German secret service people didn't know about this. This is occult information only known to the highest level of people that are occultists, high level Freemasons and so forth.

Three types of portals. Number two, the second type of portal. This is where we're getting more into the ones that are used for the official Air Force Secret Space Program, multi-dimensional portals, different locations attached to a portal depending on individual characteristics, weather, time, etc. So throw in another factor like geometry or astrological alignments and so forth.

So that's in Forgotten Genesis page 88. So that makes possible to the development of a coordinate system similar to the official Stargate program. So that's the second type of portal from point A, where you can go to multiple points, just like in the Stargate SG-1 series where you have the Stargate command in Cheyenne Mountain. You can go to point from there to go anywhere around the galaxy using hyperdimensional physics or sacred geometry. So that's the second type of portal.

And the third type of portal, dynamic portals, Earth wormholes, etc. These are continually moving space time distortions in the sense that they appear and disappear very quickly changing their position size and even subtle energetic characteristics.

So these are not considered to be stable portals. They're like a wormhole or traversable wormhole whose entry and exit point can vary depending. Again, sacred geometry and so forth is used for determining where it's going to come or where it's going to disappear. So this is again where you need to understand hyperdimensional physics, sacred geometry and so forth.

So portals form a vast Earth network.

So in the Forgotten Genesis page 35, "They are inter-dimensional chasms, i.e. entry points through which you can move from the physical plane to the etheric plane and penetrate into certain precise locations underground... I became more and more astonished at the sight of the network of subtle etheric links within the Earth as well as their extensions into the material plane which included inhabited regions such as grottoes, cities, tunnels and big cavities.”

So that's page 35 of the Forgotten Genesis book.

So they go all over the place from the surface of the Earth to any other place on the surface of the planet Earth or even deep underground and this forms a very extensive network. And it continues:

“Asking what those lights were. It was explained to me that they are powerful magnetic distortions that serve as portals, making it possible to move from the physical plane to the etheric plane from the ‘inside’ of the Earth. They are basically links between the surface and the interior of the planet.”

Whoa! Now think about that. These portals don't just connect us from point A to point B on the surface, but can take us into the Inner Earth into these ancient civilizations in the Inner Earth as well as, of course, of the planet. So they connect the Earth and other planets.:

“These portals not only connect the exterior to the interior of the Earth, but also serve as a conduit between the Earth and the other planets. Those who have sufficiently developed technology, use these links with much wisdom.”

What wisdom do they use? What is the wisdom? It's a knowledge of hyperdimensional physics and sacred geometry. Again and again it comes back to this thing of like Euclidean geometries or psychogeometry. This is why the Freemasons have this privileged role in how these portal systems are managed or released and used.

So now we move to the Inner Earth. So historic reports on the Inner Earth. So when did these reports first begin on the Inner Earth? One of the earliest references was in 1871 a book called The Coming Race by Sir Edward Bulwer Lytton, a British metaphysical researcher. And then in 1886 there was another book about travel to the Inner Earth. This was by Marquis Alexandre Saint-Yves d'Alveydre. So he wrote The Kingdom of Agatha as it was translated.

So these were some of the earliest references and they talked about the Inner Earth.

So I'm sure you've probably seen this diagram of the Inner Earth. So this is us on the surface. We're out here and here you have the surface civilizations on the inner side of the Earth. In the center you have an Inner Earth. And then you have these lands in there, ancient civilizations and so forth. Very complex, but that's the hollow Earth theory. So that's been around for well over a century now. So the question for us is it real?

So Corey Good talked about it. He talked about meeting representatives from seven Inner Earth civilizations and he began talking in 2015-16 about them taking the first steps to revealing themselves to surface humanity. And he described the Inner Earth as having a honeycomb structure.

So it wasn't so much an Inner Earth. It wasn't so much a hollow Earth, but I had a honeycomb structure, especially on the surface. And he wasn't quite clear exactly what was in the center. He was a little vague on that. I'm pretty vague on that. But now I think we do have a better understanding based on the books, based on this book by Radu Cinamar, which is I think is book five of the series.

So new disclosure on the Inner Earth. Radu Cinamar uses a portal from Bucegi to access the Inner Earth. And he describes that the Inner Earth actually in the center there is a singularity point. And that singularity point, a black hole in the center of the Earth, actually of course has an event horizon around it. And that attracts photons and so forth. And any photons that enter that event horizon can't leave. So that's the black hole. But around it is for a lot of photons that form around it. Just as in the center of our galaxy you have what appears to be the central sun of our galaxy. But in fact, that's just the photonic field that forms around a singularity point in the center of our galaxy. Similarly, in the center of the Earth you have a singularity point with this kind of photonic field around it, which we see as like an inner sun. And so this singularity point creates this inner sun and throughout it, in the interior of the Earth you actually have an outer structure which is described in this book as a honeycomb as a honeycomb structure. And as you get into the mantle of the Earth as you go deeper and deeper, I think it's a couple of thousand miles into the mantle of the Earth.

So a couple of thousand miles from the surface into the mantle of the Earth, what's considered to be the mantle, you have this kind of etheric barrier if you like. And that's when you actually begin moving into higher densities.

And that's why seismic measurements of the interior of the Earth are off. Because modern seismic measurements of the interior of Earth suggest that the interior of the Earth has a kind of solid inner core and a kind of like a fluid outer core and then you have the mantle of the Earth. And then you have the surface which is only 100 miles, the crust, 100 miles thick or some.

According to the information in this which I think is very, it dovetails with a lot of the kind of alternative science research that others have come forward with. It fits. The Inner Earth extends deep thousands of miles into the interior, into the mantle of the Earth. And it's filled. It's filled. Think about it. It's filled with cavities and civilizations that stretch far back into human antiquity. These cavities are filled with civilizations.

So, Radu Cinamar goes in there and encounters residents of different cities or civilizations in the interior of the Earth. And they have many different structures. They're all unique.

Some of these caverns inside the Inner Earth are huge. They are massive caverns.

Some of them can even be as big as states. That's how big they are. And we know this is all scientifically, this matches with what scientists have found about the structure of lava tubes on the moon and Mars and so forth. Again, in the interests of time I will not go into that.

So, the Inner Earth city is under Romania. So, he describes these Inner Earth cities under Romania. So, one city is called Apellos. And that's under the Apuseni mountains of Romania. And so, you have a caverns or caves that link the city with the surface. And then another city down here called Tomassis. And right next to it, you have magniflows through the mantle.

So, the Inner Earth beings know where to build their cities and where the caverns are and how to ensure that they're protected from these magniflows that are moving throughout the system. And this is also underneath Romania. And in particular, it's under the Black Sea and a city called Constanta there in Romania.

So, in the second tunnel, we're told, this is the book five, Inside the Earth, in the series, it says, this portal is very old. But it describes a portal that links with the surface to this city inside of the Earth.

So, in the second tunnel, it says, "This portal is very old, a lot older than the last great cataclysm on the Earth's surface. Some of the wise men came here and built this communication network. It was then that I realized that these beings were from ancient Atlantis. But from an era, long before the total disappearance of that legendary continent."

So, this is older than Atlantis. Older than the destruction of Atlantis.

So, the Atlanteans visited this place. So, the Atlanteans took with them some of this knowledge to Atlantis.

So, this tells us this is not among the three halls of records that Edgar Cayce talked about. The legendary Shambhala is close to the city, is close to the singularity point in the Inner Earth. And in the book five of the Transylvania series, it describes a general view of Shambhala from the city of Utklaha, which is one of these cities that are in the Inner Earth.

So, the Inner Earth has access to surface portals to control access to the Inner Earth.

So, this is a dialogue in Forgotten Genesis, which is book six of the series. And it says, "These buildings actually cover essential points of passage between the physical plane and the etheric plane. They are like portals, he explained. Okay, but then, who lives in them, I ask with puzzlement?"

Some of us are the abelos, but there are also other advanced civilizations inside the planet with whom we work in the sense of using portals to travel from one place to another."

So, these portals that connect to the surface of the planet with the Inner Earth and off planet locations, the Inner Earthers protect these portals to make sure they don't fall into the wrong hands. But the cabal, Freemasons, the military seek the portals to gain access to Inner Earth.

So, the Freemasons, because of their understanding of sacred geometry, they're able to work out where these portals appear, and they're able to find access to them.

So, there's a struggle between the cabal, the Freemasons, the military, to seek these portals and the Inner Earthers trying to keep them secret, to protect them, to make sure that the corrupted surface humanity, which is how they see us at the moment, doesn't get control of them or get access to then launch its aggressive wars of conquest on the Inner Earth.

So, in Forgotten Genesis, it says: "We cannot afford to let go of these essential passages in the etheric planet and within the Earth, at least for the time being, because they would disturb the population and your rulers would want to use them for military purposes."

So, people talk about White Hats, people talk about the Deep State, and kind of like use a binary kind of worldview that Deep State, sickness, child eating, flesh worshipers and so forth, SRA and all of that. And they're evil.

Whoa, the White Hats, these guys are going to rescue us. It's not a binary thing, it's not black and white. The military mindset is still all about conquest. It's all about full spectrum domination. It's all about secrecy. It's all about restricting access to secret information. If I was ever approached by White Hats to work with them because of contacts and knowledge I have it would make me sign a non-disclosure agreement. Then I couldn't talk about a lot of these things. This is the way they operate.

So, it's much better to be a free spirit and not to be tied into the White Hats or controlled by the Luciferians and the Freemasons.

So find that third place of that, that the independent is the way they go.

So, now, cabal, the Freemasons, the military seek the portals, the case, access to the Inner Earth. In Forgotten Genesis page 37, it says: "With the development of your technology, your monitoring capabilities have become finer. The secret services of developed countries have become suspicious and have begun to gather information on these points, but they still do not understand what is really going on here."

So, there's different agencies the full list there, CIA, but there's one that is called measurement and signals intelligence agency, which measures fluctuations in electric magnetic field frequencies. And say they are the ones that measure the portals and find out when they open, when they close, when people are able to, when the spacecraft appear and so forth. So, very important group.

So, just to kind of like bring it all to a close, a couple more slides to go, halls of records and disclosure. So, where are we heading? So, the Intergalactic Confederation is one of the positive extraterrestrial groups that are here. They are associated with these 24 Seeder races.

There's an episode here that I cite from a Elena Danaan's website or YouTube channel that talks about contact with this group and Una is from one of the Seeder races. And this is what she says about the hall of records. "The secret halls of records, such as Giza and Bucegi are not arks, but these are places that preserve the same technology. They're being unveiled and soon the doors will be open and the wisdom so long hidden will be available to all Terrans because now they can now fully understand, because now, great extraterrestrial evil has left the planet and humans of Earth are now free to step into their sovereignty and overcome the human minions of the defeated enemy and unite together to build the most magnificent and prosperous future."

So, all of this information is being unveiled right now. What I've shared with you is just the information I've been able to access from open source literature. There are others that are part of these classified programs. JJ Hurtak is one. Radu Cinamar is another. And I'm sure there are others from these classified programs that have incredible details and records to share. And either they're going to come out or they're going to start releasing documents to people like me so that we can then put it out and get this information out to the general public. So, Radu Cinamar continues about the halls of records and the creators and the connection to the seeder races. I can tell you, almost for sure, that they are very advanced extraterrestrial civilization who want to help mankind very much. The difference between them and the extraterrestrial civilizations with which the Americans have concluded a kind of agreement is about the same as the difference between homo sapiens and homo erectus.

What's even more troubling is that they're not from our galaxy, but from a galaxy which is very far away. Now, this is Radu Cinamar. And that exactly describes what we were told about the 24 seeder races from people like Robert L, the French contactee, from Elena Danaan and her contact experiences, from The only planet of choice talking about the 24 extraterrestrial civilizations and The Keys of Enoch that JJ Hurtak has talked about.

So, they all talk about extraterrestrial creators of humanity.

So, Forgotten Genesis talks about multiple extraterrestrial races genetically upgrading primates to create two primary human branches. So, this was incredibly detailed. I'm really out of time, so I'll just gloss over this, but in Forgotten Genesis, it describes two main branches. It describes an ENL branch, which is very similar to the Enlil branch described by the Sumerians and the ENK branch, which is very similar to the Enki branch, described in the Sumerian cuneiform text.

So, the Inner Earth branch, is more suited to ET souls incarnated. It's more suited to starseeds.

So, even though there's been a kind of convergence of those two, it describes that like the starseeds, apparently there are 200 million of us on planet Earth genetically speaking, the DNA of these bodies are more suitable to the extraterrestrial souls that have come into these bodies. And apparently, according to this information, these bodies are kind of like outgrowth of this ENL branch. people talk about kind of like, yes, so this is one way of understanding how those starseeds incarnate into these human bodies that have a genetic set of characteristics that are more suited to connecting and understanding extraterrestrial technologies and extraterrestrial entities.

So, official disclosure and portals.

So, will official disclosure lead to portal and star gate travel technology being released and developed for mass transit? I sincerely hope so. I think as more of this information comes out, I think the general public will say, "Hey, we don't want this information, this portal technology only restricted to people with the right genetics and esoteric understanding or those that are working with secret societies or restricted to the military. We want to have access too."

So, this hopefully can be worked out, but we'll have to work out deals, diplomatic deals with the Inner Earth civilizations that don't want to be corrupted by surface humanity.

So, there's a lot of diplomacy here, which means that you've got to have pure hearted people working this out and not just have some kind of military people coming in and kind of dictating how this is all going to play out.

Return of the extraterrestrial Seeders. ET fleets are surrounding the Earth as we speak. They are here. They're activating dormant ancient technologies and waiting for the right time to appear before humanity. This is happening right now. We are in the End Times. This is it. Everything you see happening around us. It's all designed to distract you and get you to focus on survival issues, whether it's food shortages, whether it's war, whether it's financial collapse, whether it's like kind of like election interference. All of these things are to get you to focus on mundane things, whereas in reality, if you focus your attention on what is happening with all of this information that is now coming up. It's all being revealed, folks. It's all happening.

And as we put our attention on the big picture, that is going to manifest this incredible future that lies before us. And the ET Seeders are there here to help us manifest this incredible future. And they're awakening the starseeds because we are the advance. We're the tip of the spear. Everyone listening to this webinar. You're the tip of the spear because you're the ones that are going to carry this information back to your homes, back to your families, to your communities, to your workplace. And you're going to spread this out. That's how it happens, folks.

So the return of the ET Seeders, they're going to reveal this critical information, how to access halls of records, portals and space arks, hidden on Earth and the solar system.

Exactly how this is going to play out. I don't know. As I mentioned at the very beginning the congressional hearings on the UFOs, the UAPs. You can bet your... You can bet that the Deep State is going to try to move forward with a false flag alien invasion scenario. That's their card because they want to create confusion and chaos and prevent people embracing the return of the Seeders. Of course, the White Hats are working with the Seeders.

So in that regard, that's good. So the White Hats are doing the right thing. So we want to support those efforts and they want to reveal their existence. So that's a positive thing.

So hopefully this can happen without people being put through the chaos and the confusion of a false flag alien invasion. I hope that doesn't happen, but you're prepared in case it does happen. The truth is that that's supposed to be a distraction from the truth of this.

So to finish up, the Radu Cinamar book series is a White Hat disclosure. It's really to put out a lot of information about what's really going on to you, so that you can know what it is that's really happening.

And I have to honestly say that I have never read so much detailed information about the big picture as I've come so far in these six books that I have seen so far and there's actually seven books in the series. I haven't read book seven yet. I want to thank you all for listening in for being a part of this.

Thank you for indulging me as I went a little over time. But I think the information was so important that I didn't want to cut it out and reduce that because I think really you would appreciate just how much there is to explore in this. I want to thank my team, Jas Marlon, making sure our audio and video is working while answering your questions on email and of course, my wonderful wife, Angelica Whitecliff, who did the trailer for this.

So thank you all for being a part of this. Aloha.
